Guest Speaker: Damian talking about his past profession as a golf pro

- Youth Worker
- Golf a frustrating sport
- Much time to hit a stationary ball and think about precision
- Weird shots most memorable
- Ambrose competition described. Group of four play best ball.
- Golf balls have motion sensors to seek you out. Remembers game when young when cousin hit by golf ball hit by uncle
- Memory of playing in rain losing ball in hood of rain jacket.
- Players will do anything they can to improve game. Butcher experimented by chilling golf balls in display window. Played fantastic game.
- Learnt from golf
 - to get out of own way. Seriously studied pictures of Greg Norman in magazines. The more he tried to imitate but the harder he tried the worse it got because of tensing up. Tried too hard rather than allowing things to happen. This has been useful learning in social work.
 - Never doubt your own abilities. Externalising can be useful
- Starting young helps. Kids identified early these days and given intensive coaching and support.

Closing Remarks: David W

Meeting Closed: 8:34pm

The Four-Way Test

"Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"
