- The Rotary's centennial celebration for its 1.2 million Rotary members worldwide will take place in Seoul, Korea in 2016. This global festival called 2016 Rotary International Convention, will allow you to discover Rotary's history and tradition a whole new way as it will be held in Korea and expressed by Korea's unique culture. The Rotary International Convention is held once every year, in a different city. Under the Rotarian motto, 'Service above Self', the Rotary International Convention is a venue where Rotarians from all over the world share their own success and accomplishments of service within their own communities as well as in other international locations. They are to encourage each other, enhancing fellowship and friendship, and to share their Rotarian spirit and knowledge through special lectures, performances, and other many exciting programs specially designed for networking and communications.
- RI convention opening ceremony
- Volunteers at the convention
- Tried Korean BBQ
- Touring and checking on the local landmarks and history
- Border tour
- Military base tour had a short ride in the tank

- The 2016 Rotary International Convention – South Korea's biggest global conference ever with over 50,000 participants from 160 countries – has kicked off with a massive peace walk. Thousands of Rotarians have participated in the march to call for a halt to conflict between the two Koreas and to promote world peace.
