Adelaide Legacy

Adelaide Legacy - Legacy

Legacy is dedicated to caring for the families of incapacitated and deceased veterans.

Today, Legacy's caring and compassionate service assists around 90,000 widows and 1900 children and dependants with a disability nationally.

In SA and Broken Hill, almost 8,000 widows and 100 children and dependants with a disability are assisted.

Legacy is a voluntary organisation supported by veterans, servicemen and women, and volunteers drawn from all walks of life. Our support and services now extend to include the dependants of members of today's Australian Defence Force who lose their lives or are incapacitated as a result of their military service.

Legacy is dedicated to enhancing the lives and opportunities of our families through innovative and practical programs aimed at:

- the protection of individuals and families basic needs;
- advocating for their entitlements, rights and benefits;
- assisting families through bereavement; and
- helping people thrive, despite their adversity and loss.

Legacy Services

Legacy's vision is that dependants of deceased and incapacitated veterans will receive personal Legacy contact and support tailored to meet their individual needs.

Legatee Members (Volunteers)

While previously Legatees were ex-servicemen, today men and women who share the ideals and ethos of Legacy may be invited to become a member. We would welcome enquiries. Please contact Geoff Banks at Adelaide Legacy on 08 8231 9812 or email gbanks@legacyadelaide.org.au if you would like more information.

The Four-Way Test

"Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"

Funding

To maintain our Legacy services we rely on the generosity of the community. While we receive some financial support from both State and Federal governments to support our work, Adelaide Legacy funding is not government based.

Bequests in particular are gratefully received as this enables Legacy to plan for the future. For more information on leaving a bequest, please contact the Business Development Manager at Legacy on 08 8231 9812.

Coming Events

67th Legacy Race Day

On Saturday 5th December 2015, the 67th Legacy Race Day will be held at Morphettville Race Course. The SAJC have been generous supporters of Legacy for 67 years and we hope this years event will be the best yet. More details of the day will be provided nearer the time or contact Legacy on 8231 9812.

Adelaide Legacy provides a range of care and support services to its widow(er)s and children/youth including assistance and advice on accommodation, home maintenance and safety, general welfare matters and pensions, help with accessing medical and welfare services, assistance with education and life opportunities for children and youth and provides practical assistance, and financial assistance to those in need.

A Welfare Officer and a Pensions Officer are usually present to provide advice and assistance at Legacy House each day during normal business hours.

Widow(er)s and dependant children of veterans who died on operational service or subsequently, and family members of the Australian Defence Force who die or are incapacitated as a result of their service are eligible to receive Legacy benefits. Widows of WWII veterans who served in Australia only are now also eligible for Legacy benefits.

Legacy Widows' Clubs

Legacy Widows' Clubs support widows by facilitating comradeship, combating loneliness and fostering a spirit of self help under the umbrella of Legacy. Approximately 25% of our widows are members of the 55 Legacy Widows' Clubs/Social Groups located throughout SA and Broken Hill. These Clubs/Social Groups provide a most important service to our widows and a very valuable level of support to Legacy activities.

The Clubs are run by the widows themselves but come under the umbrella of Adelaide Legacy and operate under a Constitution issued by Legacy. Each is supported as necessary and assisted by their Legatee Liaison Officer.
